ROOSEVELT MAKES THE SPEECH

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

CHIEF OF THE NATION PAYS TRIBUTE TO THE THOUSAND SLAUGHTERED INNOCENTS WHO DIED BY FIRE OR BY DROWNING IN THE GHASTLY DISASTER WHICH HORRIFIED THE CIVILIZED WORLD LESS THAN A YEAR AGO.

BROOKLYN, May 30.—President Roosevelt delivered the dedication speech today at the ceremonies over the Slocum monument, which was erected to honor the memory of the victims of the horrible disaster on the excursion steamer General Slocum last year.

DEFEAT COMPLETE AND OVERWHELMING

THE JAPANESE CAPTURE THREE RUSSIAN ADMIRALS—PRACTICALLY NOTHING IS LEFT OF THE FLEET—THE LOSS OF LIFE WAS SOMETHING TERRIFIC—HUNDREDS OF RUSSIANS ARE COMING ASHORE ON PIECES OF WRECKAGE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 30.—The State Department has been notified from Tokyo that all the Russian battleships have been sunk except the Orel and Nikolai I. The defeat of the Russian fleet was complete and overwhelming, and practically nothing is left of the fleet.

Admiral Rojestvensky is among the prisoners. His flagship was sunk and the admiral was rescued and taken on board a Japanese war vessel. Admirals Voulkerson and Nebogatoff are also prisoners in the hands of the Japanese, their vessels having been sunk or captured.

Spanish King Visits Paris

PARIS, May 30.—King Alfonso of Spain arrived here today and was accorded military honors. There was a great demonstration over his arrival.

JAPANESE RECAPTURE CONTRABAAD STEAMER

TOKIO, May 30.—The steamer Oldhamia, with a cargo of kerosene for Japan taken by the Russian fleet on May 19, was recaptured by the Japanese during the recent battle and has been brought to the naval yard at Sasebo. Her captain was rescued.

THINK OTHER RUSSIANS WERE SUNK

TOKIO, May 30.—It is believed here in official circles that four Russian vessels additional to those already reported, were sunk in the recent engagement with the Japanese fleet. After the Russian fleet was shattered, the various Russian vessels sought to escape, and it is believed that in the pursuit, others were sunk by the Japanese or else by the Russian crews to prevent their capture.

ADMIRAL VELKERSEHAM CAPTURED IN THE NAVAL BATTLE BY THE JAPANESE.

When The Russian's Find Out About It

NEWS OF THE DISASTER IS KEPT FROM THE RUSSIAN PUBLIC, AND GRAVE FEARS ARE FELT FOR THE RESULTS WHEN THE RUSSIAN PUBLIC DOES FINALLY FIND OUT THE EXTENT OF THE DISASTER.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 30.—The public is still ignorant of the extent of the Russian disaster in the Far East. The most profound gloom prevails in official circles as a result of the disastrous reports being continually received, and a strict censorship has prevented information being given to the general public. The effect of final announcement of the complete destruction of the Russian fleet is anticipated with much anxiety.

For a National Assembly

ST. PETERSBURG, May 30.—The ministers are considering a plan for a national assembly. News of the naval disaster will probably hasten to announcement of their plans.

TORPEDO BOATS ACTIVE

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

VLADIVOSTOK, May 30.—It is reported that the Japanese torpedo boat and destroyer flotillas played the principal part in the attack upon and annihilation of Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet.

The Japanese flotillas made the attack upon the Russian vessels under a hailstorm of shells from the Russian rapid fire guns. The Russian batteries made a desperate effort to repulse the attack and succeeded in sinking, it is reported, half of the attacking flotillas.

Appalling Loss Of Life

THE LOSS OF LIFE IN THE BATTLE IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN SOMETHING FEARFUL—HUNDREDS OF RUSSIANS ARE COMING ASHORE ON PIECES OF WRECKAGE BOTH ON THE JAPANESE AND THE KOREAN SHORES.

LONDON, May 30.—Hundreds of wounded Russians are coming ashore along the Korean and Japanese coasts, clinging to the wreckage of their sunken war vessels. As the Russian ships went down under Japanese fire the crews and officers clung to whatever bits of wreckage remained afloat and many of them are still at sea. It will be some time before the full loss of life is known. The wounded Russians are being cared for by the inhabitants along the shores where they land.
